CHAPTER 10

Jesus is the good Shepherd—He gained power over death from his Father—He promises to visit his other sheep—He proclaims: I am the Son of God.

Verily, verily I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheep-fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and bleareth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own

sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep

follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but

will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them, but they understood not what things he said unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, they were which he spake unto them.

8 And a stranger will they not follow, but

will flee from him: for they know not the

voice of strangers.

9 And when he putteth forth his own

sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep

follow him: for they know his voice.
